11. YOUR MONEY

- 11.1 Your money shall be treated, at all times, in accordance with the applicable 'client money' rules, as amended from time to time.
- 11.2 Unless otherwise indicated, we will deposit your money in one or more segregated custody accounts ("the Custody Account") held with a regulated financial institution within or outside the European Economic Area ('EEA'), separated from the VFM Brokers' money. This means that all client money is treated as belonging to our Clients and under no circumstance we will use it to meet any of our obligations, at any time. Your money will be pooled with money belonging to other Clients in a segregated account, which shall act as an omnibus account. You understand that VFM Brokers reserves the right to place up to 80% of clients' funds in money market instruments of high quality and high liquidity such as investment grade governmental bonds and investment grade corporate bonds with a weighted average maturity of no more than 12 months, through a custody account or accounts; such Custody Account will be a custody account for the receipt, safekeeping and maintenance of the securities and/or instruments referred to above. By accepting this Client Agreement, the Client authorises VFM Brokers to establish on its books the 'Custody Account'. Further, the Client understands and accepts that the Custody Account will be in the name of 'VFM Brokers (client money)', or such other respective name as may reasonably be designated and will indicate that securities and/or instruments do not belong to VFM Brokers and are segregated from the VFM Brokers' assets. VFM Brokers will be carrying out reconciliations of the Custody Account, on a regular basis, and at reasonable intervals, to ensure that any corresponding payment into, or withdrawal from, the Custody Account is made, as appropriate so that the client funds are unaffected from any losses incurred and/or interest received from placing the funds in money market instruments.

- 11.3 In general, accounts held with financial institutions, including omnibus accounts, face various risks, including potentially being treated as one account in case the institution defaults. Under such circumstances, the enforcement of the national deposit guarantee scheme may apply without consideration of the ultimate beneficial owners of an omnibus account.
- 11.4 The funds held in the segregated account may be exposed to obligations of VFM Brokers connected with the positions of other Clients.
- 11.5 We will exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence in the selection, appointment and periodic review of the financial institutions with which we will hold client money, in accordance with our regulatory obligations. To this end, we take into account the credit rating of the institution(s) prior to depositing any client money and take reasonable steps to periodically monitor their credit risk. We may use multiple institutions to ensure diversification and allocate internal percentage limits for each institution we decide to use. We will give instructions to the institution(s) regarding the transfer and movement(s) of client money. Where you have an open position, we reserve the right to set-off any unrealised losses incurred against any of the client money held by us, in any account. This means that we may transfer any or part of any unrealised losses incurred by you from the segregated account to an account of VFM Brokers. Conversely, we may transfer any unrealised profits incurred by you as a result of an open position from an account of ours to the Omnibus Account.
- 11.6 We shall not be held responsible for the solvency, acts or omissions of any institution with which client money is held, regardless of the jurisdiction.
- 11.7 We will not pay any interest on any client money held on your behalf, regardless of whether we receive interest on those deposits from the financial institution(s) with which we hold the funds.

- 11.8 We will carry out reconciliation of funds on a regular basis, and we will proceed with any required transfer to or from the segregated account on the next business day, unless this is not possible for any reason.
- 11.9 Any amounts corresponding to liabilities you have towards us, including liabilities arising as a result of abusing the negative balance protection, can be deducted directly from the balance of any of your Account(s) or Wallet under your profile.
- 11.1
0 You have the right to withdraw any part of the funds equal to the free Margin available in your Account(s) to your Wallet, subject to any applicable restrictions regarding its operation, and any other right or limitation on such withdrawal. We reserve the right to reject a withdrawal request in instances where we have reasonable grounds to believe that said instruction is being placed to abuse our Negative Balance Protection Policy ('NBP'). Please refer to the 'VFM Brokers Wallet' section on our Website for further information on withdrawal times.
- 11.1
1 Any transfers shall only be effective after our systems have made the relevant credit or debit of the funds to the relevant Account(s), and whilst we will make all reasonable efforts to ensure any transfers are made effective in a timely manner, we cannot guarantee how long this process may take. We shall not be held liable for any delay where the cause is outside of our control.
- 11.1

- 11.1
4 We reserve the right to request additional information and/or documentation in order to be satisfied that your dealings with us, including, but not limited to deposits and withdrawals are legitimate and/or for any other reason to comply with our regulatory obligations. You understand and accept that under such circumstances there may be a delay with processing the transaction, and/or the transaction may be rejected.

- 11.1
5 Further, where we are not satisfied as to the above and reject an incoming transaction, we reserve the right to return the funds to the sender net of any transfer fees or charges which we may incur. Any refund will be sent to the same source from where the funds were received. We will only deviate from this policy where we believe, at our sole discretion, that this is necessary.
- 11.1
6 It is our policy to ensure that all withdrawals, either in part or in full of the funds you deposit with us is sent to the same source where the funds came from. Where we are unable to do so, for whatever reason, and subject to any restriction under the regulatory regime, we shall return the funds as requested in part or in full, net of any transfer fees, charges or other deductions incurred by us.
- 11.1
7 We reserve the right to accept or decline any funding and/or withdrawal request by you depending on the payment method you choose, and we may suggest you an alternative for your request. More information on our accepted payment methods can be found on our Website. For instance, where a client has requested to withdraw with a different method compared to the method he/she used to deposit, the request may be rejected, and you will be permitted to withdraw via another method you have used in the past.
- 11.1
8 You understand that we should process any funding request in accordance with applicable rules and regulations, therefore any requests which are not in line with our legal obligations may not be processed. For example, this might include instances where we are not satisfied with the documentation provided by you. In this case, we reserve the right to reverse the transaction in part or in full, net of any transfer fees, charges or other deductions incurred by us. You understand that there may be instances where we will be unable to provide you with an explanation as to why we cannot proceed with your request.
- 11.1
9 You shall make any requests relating to the administration of your Account(s) via VFM Brokers online portal.
- 11.2
0 Where you hold several Accounts with us, and we reverse any transaction from you for any reason, we may merge your funds held in those Accounts, as described above.
- 11.2

You understand that there may be instances where we cannot guarantee these times because of events outside of our control.
- 11.2

you by mistake, we will have a claim on those funds, together with any profit derived from the use of those funds, on behalf of the beneficial owner. In the same way, we shall not compensate you for any losses incurred by you as a result of you using the said funds. The claim for the full amount shall remain.

- 11.23 Where we are required to do so by law and/or any applicable rules, we reserve the right to deduct or credit any amount from your Account(s). For your convenience, you may find all costs and associated charges and how you may pay for them by using our interactive cost calculation tool available on our Website.

- 12.2 Charges may not all be represented in monetary terms but may also appear in other units such as spread, which can vary depending on the instrument and market conditions. Spread cost is measured in pip value and you will be able to find the value of a pip across all of our instruments on our Website, by accessing the Markets section on our Website (you will find the information for all of the asset classes in separate tabs). You can also calculate the spread cost by using the calculation tool as indicated in paragraph 12.1
- 12.3 Fixed spreads are available on the Fixed Spread Accounts on a number of instruments. You will be able to find the instruments we offer fixed spreads on and the respective fixed spreads applied on our Website, by accessing the forex page section and ticking the box 'Show pairs with fixed spread'. You will find the most up-to-date information about our charges on our Website. In the event you do not agree with any change, you have the right to terminate the Agreement as per the 'Termination' section of the Agreement without any penalty.
